

A DEMOCRATIC BREACH.

THE CANVASS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

THE DEMOCRACY FAR FROM UNITED—A FIGHTING CHANCE FOR THE REPUBLICANS.

Charlotte, N. C., July 27.—It is a well-established fact that the Democracy of this section of the South has been far from united in its policy, and that the friends of the State's best interests. The articles of Vance, which have from time to time appeared in "The Baltimore Sun"—pure, free-trade reasoning—have split wide open the breach already existing between Judge Fowle, the candidate for Governor, and those of "Tom" Holt, the candidate for Lieutenant Governor. The former files his kite to suit the Charlestonian, and the latter's interests lie directly opposite, he being a supporter of the mill owners and otherwise identified with the "infant industries" of the South. To beat "sid" Alexander, who was the Granger candidate in the Democratic contest for Governor, Fowle's friends associated "Tom" Holt's name with the former to please the farmers, losing sight of Holt's attitude on the leading question of the day. It can be readily seen that the "unity of forces" in this State has no foundation in fact, and that while Holt will be proud of the honor of being Lieutenant Governor, he will not be proud of being the United States Senator, and he may himself thereby become Governor, his pecuniary interests are too great to permit him to engage in much of the work that is mapped out for the Democracy to keep a solid South.

Some Republican journals seem to look with no hope toward the South for an electoral vote for their candidate. This is a gross mistake, and if it is persisted in and followed by no effort a great opportunity will be lost. In this respect it is not true that the colored vote is to be turned to the right. This will be due more to inaction on the part of the leading manufacturers, than to any conversions. Even today your correspondent was told by a mill owner with over two hundred voters in his employ that he did not intend to request them to vote in any other way than their interest demanded. He believes that free trade means bankruptcy for the South.

Taking the State ticket for its ordinary influence in the Presidential year, it is a weak device, and this is another reason why the Republican party should concentrate its efforts here. Mr. Dockery, the head of the Republican ticket, is a powerful speaker, and popular with the party generally, but he has no journals to back him. The dissemination of fallacies by over one hundred Democratic papers in this State will be a feature of the canvass, while little, if any, assistance will be afforded the Republicans in this channel, unless the National Committee will give some help. It may not be known to "The Tribune" readers, but it is a fact, that the colored vote of the whole is more intelligent than the laboring class of whites. Such being the case, the best medium for reaching Republicans here is through vigorous campaign papers. Judge Fowle is a weak candidate, from his connection with the "special tax" issue of State bonds, of "unsavory memory," and with men who built railroads on paper, and it is charged, pocketed the State endowments. Holt has been coquetting with the labor element in this State for three years or more, and he is, it is said, actually taking the money of the Knights of Labor. Another reason why the Republican party should not allow "Tom" Holt to have no use for a laboring man other than to get three dollars to work out of him for a one dollar check, redeemable at some future time. Let the Republican party consider the opportunities presented by the divisions in the Democracy of North Carolina and arrange to open a vigorous canvass here. The result will be a break in the solid South, and the election of the National Republican ticket, which is presented by Providence for the salvation of this section.

THE WORKMEN AND CLEVELAND.

ELEVEN REASONS WHY THEY WILL OPPOSE HIM—HIS HOSTILE ATTITUDE TOWARD LABOR.

The following circular was issued yesterday by the Workmen's Municipal Reform League. George Blair, whose name appears at the bottom of the paper, for opposing Cleveland's re-election, is a State Prison Inspector when Mr. Cleveland was Governor, and A. F. Kettner, another signer of the address, has been president of a Democratic club, first Master Workman of the Eccentric Engineers' Union, and the first president of the Open Trades Union.

To the workmen of the United States: A circular enclosing the following points in opposition to the candidacy of Grover Cleveland, was issued by the representative workmen of New-York State, who sent a circular to the Democratic Convention at Chicago in 1884 for that purpose.

Eleven reasons why workmen will not vote for Grover Cleveland.

While Governor of New-York he was opposed to the following labor measures:

He vetoed the bill establishing a department of labor and making the secretary of said department a Cabinet officer.

He vetoed the Mechanics' Lien Law bill, making the wages of workmen enforceable in the construction of buildings a first mortgage on the property.

He vetoed the Life Limb bill, making employers responsible for accidents happening from imperfect machinery or inferior construction of buildings.

He vetoed the bill providing for the prohibition of the manufacture of cigars in tenement-houses.

He vetoed the bill compelling the elevated railroads of New-York City to carry free cars for the poor.

He vetoed the bill requiring all the State printing to be done by union workmen.

He vetoed the bill making ten hours a legal day's work for all street-car employees.

He vetoed the bill abolishing convict labor in prisons, although this proposition was carried by a majority of 60,000.

The popular vote of the people was carried by a majority of 60,000.

He vetoed the Child Labor bill, providing for the inspection of factories where children were employed, and prohibiting the employment of children under fourteen years of age.

He signed the bill compelling the stationary engineers of New-York City to pay a tax of $2 per year to the police pension fund or be declared from following the law.

He signed the bill reducing the fees of the New York Harbor pilots, which bill benefited only the foreign merchant marine.

GEORGE BLAIR, chairman, A. F. SMITH, secretary.

Packaging-box maker, Stationery engineer.

New-York State delegation to Chicago, 1884.

Since the expiration of his term as Governor the fifteen-cent carfare is a fact; all the other measures which he vetoed have been made inoperative by the Legislature.

Engineer Tax bill, after being in operation one year, has been repealed.

Brothers, with this record, not of public utterances, but of official acts, are you willing to elect this man to rule over us for another four years in the interests of monopolists and plutocrats?

Workmen's Municipal Reform League, of New-York City.

A. H. GALLAGHER, chairman.

ENGLEWOOD REPUBLICANS ORGANIZED.

A STRONG CAMPAIGN CLUB FORMED, AND RECRUITS FROM THE OTHER PARTIES ENROLLED.

The Republicans of Englewood organized a campaign club on Saturday evening at a well-attended meeting, of which W. M. Grosvenor was chairman and Clinton H. Blake secretary. Among those who joined the club were several prohibitionists, including Court Vanderboek, one of the prohibition leaders in Bergen County; several prominent Democrats, including Edward Quirk and Oliver Drake, who supported Mr. Cleveland in 1884 and was "Chairman Headquarters Committee, Independents of New-Jersey." In that campaign, Mr. Smith's letter requesting his enrollment said:

"As I will be unable to be present, and as one who believes in the doctrine of protection to American industries, and in protecting the American market for American products, and that, whenever necessary, a reduction of the internal revenue should take place before a reduction is made in the tariff. Let me say, too, for I understand that it is said that I am displeased with the way things are being managed in Englewood Hall, that I am not a member of the club, and that I am not always have been of the most pleasant character."

For president the club unanimously elected E. A. Brickerhoff, an efficient work as president of the Hall and Logan Club in 1884 was remembered by all.

General S. A. Duncan and J. Wyman Jones were elected vice-presidents, and both made appropriate addresses. William Blake, well known as the author of the "New York Standard," was elected secretary, and Donald Mackay, of the banking house of Vernell & Co., formerly president of the New York Stock Exchange, was elected treasurer.

The executive committee elected comprises Clinton H. Blake, chairman; Samuel G. Acton, Dwight A. Jones, Edward Quirk, H. C. Goehmann, and John Van Vleet, Jr.

O. T. Terry, John E. Miller, member of the State Committee for Bergen County, and George R. Dutton, W. M. Grosvenor, members of the County Committee, are ex-officio members of the executive committee. Sub-committees were appointed to make arrangements for an immediate canvass of the town, to arrange for permanent headquarters, and to co-operate with the treasurer in financial matters.

CONGRESSMAN COX NOT TO LEAVE POLITICS.

Congressman S. S. Cox, when seen by a reporter at the Manhattan Beach Hotel on Saturday night, expressed great surprise at being asked if there was any truth in the report that he was about to give up politics and go to Europe.

"Give up politics and go to Europe!" he exclaimed. "Then there is no truth in the report."

"There is no foundation whatever for any such rumor, and I am glad of the opportunity to correct the mistake. I cannot imagine how such a rumor came current. I never dreamed of such a thing, and had not heard of it until yesterday."

"Let me say, too, for I understand that it is said that I am displeased with the way things are being managed in Englewood Hall, that I am not a member of the club, and that I am not always have been of the most pleasant character."

SENATOR PASSETT TAKES A VACATION.

Senator J. S. Fassett has been busy for a day or two getting his affairs into such shape that he could go away from New-York for a brief vacation, and yesterday he hoped to be on his way to the north by this morning.

STILL TRUE TO THE PART OF LINCOLN.

DENTING A REPORT THAT THE COLORED RACE ARE DESERTING THE REPUBLICAN RANKS.

Augustus Murray, a well-known colored man of this city, who is well informed on points from the colored man's point of view, is much incensed at an article which appeared in a Democratic paper recently, in which it was stated that about 40 per cent of the colored voters of this city would this year leave the ranks of the Republican party. Said Mr. Murray yesterday: "I am curious to know how it is possible for a colored man, who, I believe, is the author of the article, to know so much about the political condition of the colored people of New-York. It is nonsense to talk of 40 per cent of the colored vote, or 7,000 voters, going over to the Democrats. There isn't a colored political leader in the State, and we don't require any, when we can lean to the telling words that come from the lips of such men as Colonel Ingersoll and Frederick Douglass. The colored people are no fools, and there isn't a colored man in the whole State who will vote the Democratic ticket unless from selfish motives. Of course, the colored people are forming Democratic clubs in all the Southern districts. But why not? There are as many 'skin' politicians among them as there are among the whites. But Mr. Stewart says it is a political exodus. Where did he get his knowledge? He also says that the colored voter is shaking off the chains of political bondage. Why, they did that under the Republican Administration of President Lincoln, and have been free to act ever since."

"Speaking of President Cleveland's liberality, it reminds me of a drowning man grasping for a straw when the Democratic party makes a bid for the colored vote. But they have come too late to suit me. I am a colored man, and I am not looking for personal aggrandizement. Mr. Stewart is wrong in his assertions concerning the Southern League. It is a benevolent organization, and has no political significance, and I challenge any one to prove the contrary. President Jarrett, of the organization, holds a Government position, so it is not a Southern League. But in what particular has President Cleveland been liberal with colored patronage? What is the significance of a few colored appointments compared with one act of General Grant, who made it possible for colored men to represent their hours in the South as colored men."

Mr. Murray spoke of the recent colored Democratic conference at Indianapolis, and mentioned the names of a number of colored men who had been elected to the Executive Committee of the Government. "But they are, of course, all Democrats now," he said.

FORMING CLUBS IN NEW-JERSEY.

The Republicans of New-Jersey have organized amid much enthusiasm a Harrison and Morton Club composed of over 200 members. Officers have been elected as follows: President, Benjamin F. Howell; first vice-president, John N. Carpenter; second vice-president, John R. Russell; secretary, Samuel C. Gowen; treasurer, Peter P. Runyon. A club with eighty members was organized on Monday night at Milltown. Three clubs have been organized at Mount Pleasant, and one at Rahway. Clubs were also formed at Jamesburg, Mendon and Cranbury.

ANXIOUS TO HONOR THE NEXT PRESIDENT.

Clubs in the Bureau of Vital Statistics watch every fourth day for the appearance of the names of Presidential candidates on the birth register as an indication of the popularity of each candidate. Parents of male infants in this city have not bestowed the name of Grover Cleveland on their offspring lately, but since the renomination of the President, the Health Department clerks have been expecting that his name would reappear on the register. They have been disappointed, but on one day last week they were obliged to register the births of three youngsters who bear the Christian name of "Benjamin Harrison."
